MeetGreen Signs Rebecca Mebane for Washington, DC Office

PORTLAND, OREGON- Expanding its East Coast presence, MeetGreen® has hired Rebecca Mebane, recognized green meeting champion based in Washington DC.

"For years, we have shared an orbit with Rebecca on a number of critical sustainability issues. The opportunity to add her to the MeetGreen team came at a perfect time for us," says Amy Spatrisano, CMP of MeetGreen.

Prior to joining MeetGreen, Ms. Mebane served as Director of Conferences and Meetings for the National Recycling Coalition (NRC). While at NRC, she developed the Coalition's Green Meeting Policy and has become a frequent conference presenter on the topic. She currently serves as a Vice Chair of the APEX Accommodations Committee for Green Meeting Standards.

"This is such an important moment for our industry," declares Rebecca. "As part of the MeetGreen team, I can contribute my expertise both in meeting planning and in sustainability. There's a real sense of accomplishment in working with clients to make a difference."
